THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1768.]

THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1769.

It is with great Pleasure we now inform the Public, that, at a GENERAL MEETING of the Inhabitants of Charles-Town, and of the Places adjacent, the following ASSOCIATION was unanimously agreed to; which we have no Doubt, will be satisfactory to, and concurred with, by every Free-man in the Province.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loving Subjects, the Inhabitants of SOUTH-CAROLINA, being sensibly affected with the great Prejudice done to GREAT-BRITAIN, and the abject and wretched condition to which the BRITISH COLONIES are reduced by several Acts of Parliament lately passed; by some of which the Monies of the Colonists usually and chearfully spent in the Purchase of all Sorts of Goods imported from GREAT-BRITAIN, are now, to their great Grievance, wrung from them, without their Consent, or even their being represented, and applied by the Ministry, in Prejudice of, and without Regard to, the real Interest of GREAT-BRITAIN, or the Manufactures thereof, almost totally, to the support of new-created Commissioners of Customs, Placemen, parasitical and novel ministerial Officers; and by others of which Acts, we are not only deprived of those invaluable Rights, Trial by our Peers and the Common Law, but are also made subject to the arbitrary and oppressive Proceedings of the Civil Law, justly abhorred and rejected by our Ancestors, the Free-Men of England; and finding, that the most dutiful and loyal Petitions from the Colonies ALONE, for Redress of those Grievances, have been rejected with Contempt, so that no Relief can be expected from that Method of Proceeding; and, being fully convinced of the absolute Necessity, of stimulating our Fellow-Subjects and Sufferers in GREAT-BRITAIN to aid us, in this our Distress, and of joining the Rest of the Colonies, in some other loyal and vigorous Methods, that may most probably procure such Relief, which we believe may be most effectually promoted by strict OECONOMY, and by encouraging the MANUFACTURES of AMERICA in general, and of this Province in particular: WE THEREFORE, whose Names are underwritten, do solemnly promise, and agree to and with each other, That, until the Colonies be restored to their former Freedom, by the Repeal of the said Acts, we will most strictly abide by the following

RESOLUTIONS.

I. That we will encourage and promote the Use of NORTH-AMERICAN MANUFACTURES in general, and those of this Province in particular. And any of us, who are Venders thereof, do engage to sell and dispose of them, at the same Rates as heretofore.

II. That we will upon no Pretence whatsoever, either upon our own Account or on Commission, import into this Province, any of the Manufactures of GREAT-BRITAIN, or any other EUROPEAN or EAST-INDIA Goods, either from GREAT-BRITAIN, HOLLAND, or ANY OTHER PLACE, other than such as may have been shipped in Consequence of former Orders; excepting only NEGRO CLOTH, commonly called white and coloured PLAINS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard, striped DUFFIL BLANKETS, OSNABRUGS, coarse white LINENS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard, CANVAS, BOLTING CLOTHS, DRUGS and FAMILY MEDICINES, PLANTATION and WORKMENS TOOLS, NAILS, FIRE ARMS, BAR STEEL, GUN POWDER, SHOT, LEAD, FLINTS, WIRE CARDS and CARD WIRE, MILL and GRIND-STONES, FISH HOOKS, printed BOOKS and PAMPHLETS, SALT, COALS, and SALT-PETRE. And exclusive of these Articles, we do solemnly promise and declare, that we will immediately countermand all Orders to our Correspondents in GREAT-BRITAIN, for shipping any such Goods, Wares and Merchandize: And we will sell and dispose of the Goods we have on Hand, or that may arrive in Consequence of former Orders, at the same Rates as heretofore.

III. That we will use the utmost OECONOMY, in our Persons, Houses and Furniture; particularly, that we will give no MOURNING, or GLOVES or SCARVES at Funerals.

IV. That, from and after the 1st Day of January 1770, we will not IMPORT, BUY, or SELL, any NEGROES that shall be brought into this Province from AFRICA; nor, after the 1st Day of October next, any NEGROES that shall be imported from the WEST-INDIES, or ANY OTHER PLACE, excepting from AFRICA as aforesaid. And that, if any Goods or Negroes shall be sent to us, contrary to our Agreement in this Subscription, such Goods shall be re-shipped or stored, and such Negroes re-shipped from this Province, and not by any Means offered for Sale therein.

V. That we will not purchase from, or sell for, any Masters of Vessels, transient Persons, or Non-Subscribers, any Kind of EUROPEAN or EAST-INDIA GOODS whatever, excepting COALS and SALT, after the 1st Day of November next.

VI. That as WINES are subject to a heavy Duty, we agree, not to import any on our Account or on Commission, or purchase from any Master of Vessel, transient Person, or Non-Subscriber, after the 1st Day of January next.

VII. LASTLY, That we will not purchase any NEGROES imported, or any GOODS or MERCHANDIZE whatever, from any Resident in this Province, that refuses or neglects to sign this Agreement, within one Month from the Date hereof; excepting it shall appear he has been unavoidably prevented from doing the same. And every Subscriber who shall not, strictly or literally, adhere to this Agreement, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, ought to be treated with the utmost Contempt.

GIVEN under our Hands this twenty-second Day of July, 1769.

MR. TIMOTHY,

If in your next GAZETTE you will insert this paper, you will much oblige the author of it.

AS a tree is known by its fruit, so he flatters himself that this his production amounts to a sufficient evidence, that he is as true a friend to the constitution of his country as any of those Gentlemen are, who assemble under Liberty-Tree.---Determined to possess his own sentiments, and to subject them to no vain Demagogue, he will make use of that freedom, which is the characteristick of a British subject, to censure what he disapproves; a liberty which he finds is now very generally made use of, by all ranks of people here, and to which he thinks himself as much intitled as any one person among them. Regardless whom this paper may affect, I take the liberty thus to expose a Patriot to public view, and shew either the wickedness of his heart or the weakness of his head.

Quem queris, hic est.------Behold the Carolina Patriot! The present ruling passion of this man, is a most fervent zeal to steer the state, and in his way to support her fundamental laws.---Is this patriotism? Yes, it is the patriotism of the age. For now a-days, they assume the appellation of Patriots, only to assist them in acquiring Treasurerships, or some such lucrative posts. But whether or no our patriot has acted in conformity to the constitution, the compass by which a true patriot always steers, will be very evident, by examining the last clause in a set of regulations which he did, on the 28th of last month, promulge to every individual in the province. The substance of that clause is, "That whosoever shall neglect to subscribe to those regulations for the space of one month ensuing from the date of them, every such person, man, woman, or child, so presuming to make use of that faculty of thinking and reasoning, and acting in conformity thereto; a blessing! which God hath graciously bestowed upon mankind, and of which the laws of our country have not deprived the inhabitants, shall be held and adjudged an enemy to this province!"---This method of convicting the reason, and acquiring the submission of a free people, is like the Popish method of gaining converts to their religion by fire and faggot. To stigmatize a man, even the meanest in a community, and brand him with the infamous name of an enemy to his country, can be legally done by no authority but by that of the voice of the Legislature. And no person but a traitor or madman would think of any other.

The terror of this base, illegal decree, compelled numbers of well-meaning people to submit their opinions to the regulation of the demagogue, and by consequence were unwilfely drawn in to countenance him in usurping the direction of, 'till now, the unrestrained free-will and opinions of free men. Than this, there cannot be a more humiliating mark of abject slavery! Than this, there cannot be a more wicked and bold attempt, even from our greatest enemies, to ruin and overthrow our happy constitution.---Yet this man, who sets up for a patriot, and pretends to be a friend to Liberty, scruples not, like Cromwell, who was the patriot of his day, to break through and overthrow her fundamental laws, while he declared he would support and defend them all, and to endeavour to enslave his fellow-subjects, while he avowed that he only contended for the preservation of their liberties.

Traitors have endeavoured to enslave our fore-fathers; but infamous as they were, they never attempted, since the days of Popery, to enslave their opinions---the worst kind of slavery!---Cromwell fought against monarchical tyranny, that he might introduce a tyranny of a more horrible species; our patriot wrangled and inveighed against the late Stamp-Act, and present American Revenue-Laws, which can only enslave our persons and properties; and, like Cromwell, opposed these, that he might introduce infinitely greater evils: No less, than to endeavour to curb, subdue and guide the will, and set bounds to the opinions of men! well knowing that, if the mind was once reduced to the subjection of another, the person so divested of his free will, must of consequence become a slave, and his property be exposed to the mercy of the tyrant.

What appellation can be too opprobrious for the man who has dared to make such an impious attempt upon the rights and liberties of his fellow-citizens?----Language itself is too weak to furnish one adequate to the crime.

However, as all patriots have their partisans, of course our patriot must have some, who will desire to excuse his conduct.---Well, to let their patron off as easily as possible, for he is either a traitor or madman; we must impute his breach upon the constitution, to his being over-charged with intemperate zeal, which has had the same effect upon his intellects, as an electrical rod receives, when over-charged with etherial fluid, for by the shock it is destroyed, and rendered inadequate to the use intended.---And that he is now far advanced in a state of lunacy, appears from the melancholly circumstance of his having lately imagined himself a monarch! for an ensign of royalty made himself a crown of leaves, thinking them straw, placed it on his awful brow, and with solemn dignity walked, in his opinion at least, the ruler of the people.---But, to prevent any ill consequence from his disorder, I humbly propose that he may be lodged in a certain brick building, behind a certain white house, near the old barracks, and there maintained, at least during the ensuing change and full of the moon, at the public expence.

Santee, July 28, 1769. FREE-MAN.

MR. TIMOTHY,

PRESUMING that every man who confines himself within certain bounds, makes himself known to you, and pays your demand for what he desires to have published; and having conformed to these terms; give me leave to claim a place in your next, for a few remarks on the detestable piece that appeared in your Gazette No. 1764, under the signature of pro Libertate et Lege.

From the manner of his writing, I presume he must either be a dependant pensioner, placeman, or some fawning animal, who, by setting himself up on this side of the water as a ministerial tool, expects to be some time hence rewarded with a more lucrative office than he holds under the present corrupt M------y.

Sir, This great champion, whoever he may be, I think should be checked in his first attempt. For my part, I wish he had been noticed by some abler pen; yet if my poor abilities can be of the least service to my country, it will afford me infinite satisfaction.

The observations he has thought fit to lay before the public, are absurd, and his assertions, in regard to our Patriot, not only slanderous and infamous, but also well known to be false. Could thou, pro Libertate et Lege, boast the one-hundred part of his virtue, public spirit, disinterestedness, genuine courage, and loyalty; hadst thou been as little suspected of deceiving, or holding up a false standard, thy name, person, and performance, would not have fallen into that universal disgrace and contempt thou art now mortified wherewith.---For shame man! burn thy pen, retire from society, and conceal thy talent for writing, with as much industry, as thy modesty has, on some late occasion, done thy courage, which I am convinced would rather have induced thee to pocket the appellation of Coward, than to dare stile any man a damned enthusiastic Rebel, had the brave and ever-memorable Cromwell been alive.

Is it not evident, that one of the author's views (in which however he has been disappointed) was, to divide the people of this province, and draw off their attention from the grand object now pursuing for the good of posterity? Let any man read his piece with deliberation, he cannot but be clearly convinced, that the remarks were written to mislead us, and to recommend the writer himself, in the Bernardian way.---But may he, who dares insinuate, that a native American can entertain a sentiment of disloyalty to the Brunswick line, or disaffection to the English constitution; I say, may such a damn'd rebellious villain be banished from this our peaceful land, never to return until convicted in his own mind of the blessings a free people ought to enjoy, and 'till then may he continue to be held in the utmost abhorrence and contempt by every well-wisher to his country.

Are we not at this time in a state of probation, between being and not being relieved by our mother-country? Is she not, in every news-paper, telling us, that our grievances will be redressed in due time? Have we not reason to apprehend, that these are mere delusions? calculated to lull us into a state of supineness and inactivity, that we may neglect the salutary and spirited measures adopted by all North-America, for restoring the peace and quiet of the nation!

Let us then, my friends, be true and trusty to each other, steady and resolute, by all legal means, to maintain our rights and liberties; and never suffer any fallacious arguments, or lulls by circular ministerial or other letters, to divert us from taking every prudent step, that can prevent our being taxed without our own consent, by those whom we have no voice in choosing.

The writer declares himself no politician. But surely he must think us all fools, to imagine that we cannot clearly see his performance is altogether political, and wrote to gratify his own abject principle.

He calls himself our countryman and friend, as coming within the description of the former; but this arises from the high opinion he alone entertains of own great merit, and is calculated purely for his own advantage.

With regard to our ladies, no man can have a higher opinion of them, and their prudent behaviour upon the late adopted plan of œconomy, than I have. And it would have been a mark of the highest ingratitude, had that proved than omitted craving a blessing on them, for their bounty in bestowing so many dinners and suppers on him in his necessitous circumstances.

Upon the whole. Let us not be deluded or influenced by false or pretended friends and countrymen, such as pro Libertate et Lege, whom I declare to be no countryman or friend to this province, and in particular to BUCKSKIN.

CARD.

PHILANTHROPOS presents his compliments to Mr. Timothy's acquaintance, and informs him, That notwithstanding the proffered great reward, no person has ever attempted to earn his money.---For which reason he humbly offers a piece of advice.---If you are not what you suppose others to be, never desire any person to do that for you, you dare not attempt doing for yourself, particularly in a country that does not afford fighting hacks: besides, you do not offer ten for one.

PHILANTHROPOS.

To the PUBLIC,

THE repeated Encouragement, Countenance and Protection the AMERICAN THEATRE has met with here, from an Audience one of the most respectable on the Continent, is universally known, and has deeply imprinted the Sentiments of Gratitude in the Breasts of the American Company of Comedians---in Consequence of which, Mr. DOUGLASS, Manager of that Company, sent me here from New-York, to build an elegant THEATRE, fit for the Accommodation of so numerous and polite an Audience as formerly honoured this Stage with their Patronage.---On these Principles (with a strict Charge to the Elegance of the Decorations, on which neither Pains or Cost was to have been spared) I set out for this Metropolis, but on my Arrival, was very much disappointed to find the Colony involved in the present disagreeable (though glorious) Struggle; I thought it my Duty to enquire of our former Patrons their Opinion with Regard to erecting a Theatre at this Juncture, but found, that till those unhappy Differences were subsided, it would be disagreeable to the Majority of the Inhabitants.

Under these Circumstances, it would be doing the highest Injustice to the worthy and respectable Public, as well as to our own private Principles of Gratitude, for the innumerable Favours received here, to have the most distant Thought of what was never meant but as a grateful Proof of our constant Endeavours to entertain, in the most elegant Manner, so generous and judicious an Audience.---Therefore, without the least Hesitation, (in Compliance to the general Desire) I declined it till a more favourable Opportunity.

The Ladies and Gentlemen of this Town, have always been as particularly conspicuous in their Taste for every Kind of rational Amusement, as for their Encouragement of the polite Arts in general, among which the Theatre has always claimed, and as constantly received, their generous Protection; and I am fully convinced, did not Matters of the utmost Importance, merit their highest Attention at this critical Juncture, it would not fail of that Patronage it has been hitherto honoured with.

I shall beg Leave to observe, before I conclude, that from the most sincere Gratitude, and to endeavour at meriting the Favour so generously bestowed on the Theatre, the Manager has been at a most considerable Expence in every Decoration belonging to it, to render it complete for the Purpose, amounting to some Thousand Pounds; and it is to be hoped, as soon as every political

A Trade that concerns the Welfare of this valuable Colony is fetled to general Satisfaction, that under fuch generous and refpectable Patrons, like every other of the polite Arts, the BRITISH may not exceed, if equal the AMERICAN STAGE.

I have the Honour to be,
With the utmoft Reſpect and Deference,
The Public's moſt devoted, and very humble Servant,
July 31, 1769. JOHN HENRY.

* * Extract of a Letter from London, dated May 22.

------ "I ſtill dread, and tremble at, the conſequences of our unhappy diſpute with America; a diſpute by which both parties have already ſuffered much, but eſpecially here, by an encreaſe of debt and loſs of commerce. The Coloniſts, however, have many friends, who revere them for the glorious ſtruggle they are engaged in, and wiſh they had been earlier and more general in their RESOLUTIONS, to make it the intereſt of the manufacturer and merchant, to enter heartily into their cauſe: But the preſent M------y have at length eſtabliſhed ſo complete an influence and entire aſcendancy over a majority of the attending M----s of the H---e of C------s, as, in fact, to have wreſted all power out of the hands of the People's HONEST Rep--ſ------ves, whence I almoſt deſpair of ſeeing a change of meaſures, 'til there has been a change of men, which ſeems to depend greatly on your conduct. On the 8th inſtant, they carried their point againſt the freeholders of M-------x, for whom they have choſen and ſtated a member, as odious to the conſtitutional Electors, as would be Mr. George Grenville to you Americans had he been elected here, to ſit in the General Court at Boſton. After this, what may not be attempted! what may not be accompliſhed! For my part, I have ſcarce an idea of the preſervation of any eſſential rights or liberties but in Corſica; whither you may probably hear of my removal in another year, unleſs the face of affairs is very much altered. The parliament was, on the 9th, prorogued to the 14th of June, but it is generally believed will not ſit, to do any buſineſs, before the middle of November, unleſs new advices from America ſhould require it. His Majeſty, in his ſpeech at the cloſe of the ſeſſion, was pleaſed to ſay, "The meaſures which I "had taken, regarding the late unhappy diſturbances in NORTH "AMERICA, have been already laid before you. THEY have "RECEIVED your approbation; and YOU have ASSURED "ME of your FIRM SUPPORT in the PROSECUTION OF "THEM." Hence it is clear, what you are to depend upon: your own virtue, union, and reſolute perſeverance in forbearing the importation and uſe of European and Indian ſuperfluities, in giving proper encouragement and ſupport to the introduction and eſtabliſhment of our manufactures amongſt yourſelves (for which we can furniſh you with plenty of artizans) and in a repetition of dutiful, loyal, and ſpirited addreſſes, petitions and remonſtrances; which may, at length, be received, read, heard, and prevail: But, if you are SLACK, or WAVERING, in the purſuit of either of theſe meaſures, you may then bid adieu to YOUR LIBERTIES, which will be ſwallowed up in the general corruption of this iſle, never to be reſtored. There is one circumſtance that may, or may not, operate in your favour, according as you act, which I muſt not omit to mention. The excluſion of the M-------x member, and giving his ſeat to Col. L------ll, has already occaſioned to great a ferment (tho' the news-p--rs are quite ſilent about it) that the M------y begin to be alarmed, and ſeem ſeriouſly to dread ſome fatal blow to their enormous influence and power; in order to avert which, and in ſome meaſure draw off the attention of the people from that object, they, on the 19th, gave out, and the paragraph is inſerted in all the papers, "That it is abſolutely determined by the Miniſtry (you ſee, it is not expreſſed BY THE P--------T; they are meer cyphers) "that all the acts relative to the taxing of America, ſhall be re- "pealed, at the opening of the next ſeſſions of parliament." But, does His Majeſty, in that clauſe of his ſpeech I have quoted, ſay this, or any thing like this? Did the parliament, before its prorogation, ſay this, or any thing like this? Has not miniſterial influence all along checked the conſideration of American applications, for redreſs of grievances? Did not the ſame influence, near the cloſe of the laſt ſeſſion, over-rule Mr. Pownall's motion, for a reſolution, "that it might be proper to reviſe and conſider the American revenue acts the next ſeſſion?" And was it not then propoſed, in order to quiet your minds (and put a ſtop to your meaſures) that it might be of ſome ſervice TO BE GIVEN OUT IN AMERICA, that, if no material circumſtances ſhould in the mean time occur to render it improper, the houſe would be moved to take up the conſideration of the acts in the Fall? In conſequence of which, I think, you may expect to receive flattering CIRCULAR LETTERS, from different quarters---while the PROMULGATORS will be only waiting to ſee, if you can and will deſiſt from farther importations; which if you do not, remember I ſay, you are loſt.---Your virtue is now put to the trial. Be firm, and you may be happy. But beware of tumults, and let nothing provoke you, to any unmanly, ſeditious, or diſloyal proceedings.------"

BENJAMIN FARRAR, and FRANCIS POWELL, Eſqrs. we hear, were elected the 27th paſt, to repreſent the pariſh of Prince Frederick, in the preſent General Aſſembly.

MACARTAN CAMPBELL, } Inquirers.

Boston, April 14, 1769.

THE Honourable the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, observing that ships and vessels frequently incur forfeitures, and their owners become subject to heavy penalties, thro' the misconduct or negligence of the masters and seamen; and particularly by the masters not making true reports of their cargoes, which they sometimes pretend they are not able to do, from the manner that they take in their loading at foreign ports: And at other times they pretend, that the seamen take on board private ventures, and conceal the same from their knowledge, so as to be landed clandestinely upon their arrival, without payment of duty.

And several ships and vessels, seized for the commission of offences of this kind, having been released in consequence of such representations from the owners. The Commissioners think it necessary to advertise, for the information and discovery of any such offences, in future, the same will be prosecuted as the law directs; so that it behoves the owners to suppress the custom of suffering the seamen to take in private ventures; and also to admonish the masters to be punctual in taking an account of their cargoes, and to pay a strict regard to their oaths in reporting the same, as well at the ports of their first arrival, as the ports of entry in NORTH-AMERICA. By Order of the Commissioners.

RICHARD REEVE, SECRETARY.

St. John's Parish, Georgia, July 1, 1769.

Notice is hereby again given,

TO all Persons who may still have any demands against the estate of JOHN LUPTAN deceased, that unless they do bring the same in, properly attested, by the first day of January 1770, they will be excluded from any part thereof, the Executors being determined then to pay whatever shall remain in their hands, to the heirs of said Luptan.
